

Frank Scahill Takes His Insurance Defense Expertise on the Road to Teach at CLM

August 29, 2019 – Bethpage, NY - Picciano & Scahill, P.C., a well-respected and recognized leader in New York trial law and insurance defense litigation is proud to announce that Frank Scahill, Esq., Managing Partner for the firm will be providing curriculum for CLM at the upcoming Claims College event in Baltimore, Maryland.

The CLM, a member of The Institutes, is dedicated to meeting the professional development needs of the claims and litigation management industries. Founded in 2007, the CLM membership benefits from networking events, continuing education programs and a wide variety of industry resources.

Understanding the value of on-going education, CLM established Claims College in 2012 and enlists the industry's top professionals to create and teach courses within their areas of expertise in the College's eleven specialty schools. The Schools of Casualty Claims, Construction, Cyber Claims, Insurance Fraud, Professional Lines, Property Claims, Transportation and Workers Compensation are three-level programs.

Upon successful completion of these Schools, students earn their Certified Claims Professional (CCP) in that specialty. Upon successful completion of these Schools, participants earn a Certificate of Completion for that program. Since its inception, hundreds of students have attended Claims College and nearly 300 have earned their CCP designation.

Chosen for his expertise in insurance defense, Frank Scahill will be part of the faculty in the School of Casualty Claims and will be presenting on Investigation Strategy. This course will be offered to attendees on Thursday, September 5th from 1 – 2:30PM. Frank says of the opportunity, "It is a privilege to be considered a resource and educator to the industry. I am excited at the chance to share my expertise in investigations with the Claims College students." The CLM event will be held at the Marriott Baltimore Waterfront, September 4 – September 7, 2019.

In addition to the course being taught by Frank Scahill, the firm, Picciano & Scahill is proud to be a gold sponsor for the event. For more information about the CLM, visit them on line at www.theclm.org.
